

Program Overview

Fintrinsic is essentially "Financial Literacy in a Box" - a turnkey, self-serve financial literacy program designed for employers, nonprofits, and community organizations that want to support financial confidence without adding operational burden.

Who It's For

- Employers and People Ops teams
- Nonprofits and workforce organizations
- Community programs serving adults or young people

What's Included

- 75+ short, evergreen video lessons
- Structured learning paths (budgeting, credit, debt, investing)
- Worksheets, calculators, and practical tools
- Admin dashboard with simple usage reporting
- Launch and onboarding toolkit

How It Works

Organizations license the program annually and launch in under a week. Learners complete short, practical lessons at their own pace. No live facilitation, custom curriculum, or IT integration required.

Pricing (Annual License)

- Up to 100 learners: $2,500 / year
- Up to 500 learners: $5,000 / year
- Up to 2,000 learners: $10,000 / year

Multi-year and sponsored program pricing available.
